

This design is the tiny home of your dreams.

The Cargo comes in two popular designs ideal for the budget conscious and is perfect as a weekender retreat or granny flat.

Only made up of one modular component this design has the advantage of being constructed 100 per cent off-site before being transported to its final destination.

This design can be customised to suit your individual needs.